

NUTRITION
SOCIETY
LIVE
2020

14 - 15 July
AN OPPORTUNITY TO BE INVOLVED

WHAT

Nutrition Society Live 2020 will combine lectures, Training Academy webinars, virtual abstract presentations and interactive networking opportunities to create a platform for disseminating cutting-edge nutritional science and a space for building relationships.

WHO

The programme has been designed to attract nutrition and healthcare professionals, academic researchers, postgraduate students, members of the food industry, clinicians, dietitians, and the media.

HOW

To show your support for The Society and its work, as one of the world's largest leading learned societies for nutrition, there are a variety of opportunities to be involved.

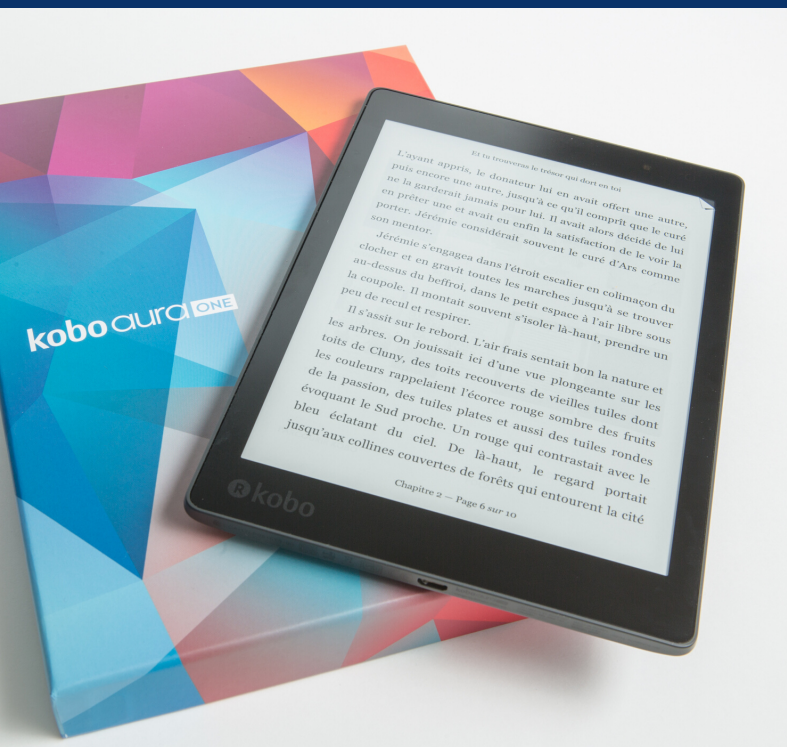

Before Nutrition Society Live 2020

- Sign up to attend the event
- Sponsor delegates or student delegates to attend
- Be acknowledged as a supporter of this event

During Nutrition Society live 2020

- Breakfast satellite session – a 45 minute pre-recorded session
- E-book programme
- Acknowledgement on the e-poster platform and presentation slides

After Nutrition Society Live 2020

- Website and social media acknowledgements of support
